Commodore's Comments

Harlan Delby

With this issue of the Foghorn, we are 3 months into the summer. The season is three-quarters over - depressing thought. It's a good time to make some observations on the Club and to ask for your help.

We all look to our boats for relaxation and fun. Some of us relax by quiet cruises and some by hectic races. Whatever our style, we want our yacht club to be part of the fun of sailing, not a source of the tension. The Club should be a comfortable den, a haven, a comfortable place to go to meet friends, talk boats, enjoy a meal and some popcorn. In short, the Club should be like a club.

That has been my goal and the goal of the Board this year. If we were a business, we would say that we were trying to concentrate on customer service. We aren't a business. We're a club, and we've been concentrating on member satisfaction. We've tried offering some new services and programs. We've tried to be responsive to your concerns. We know it's impossible to do everything everybody wants. We are, after all, a small club, with limited resources and some fixed obligations. The staff, the Board and I are, however, making a special effort to respond. I like to think we're succeeding. Let us know.
